From 17:00-20:00

Cathedral Trinity (Sameba) – Cathedral of the Holy Trinity, called as the "Millennium Building". Sameba is the largest Orthodox cathedral in Georgia and the Caucasus. It represents a synthesis of cross-domed and central-domed church. The height of Cathedral is 100 meters.

Narikhala fortress – exists since the mid-4th century. The fortress is built on a hill, therefore there is a splendid view of the old city.

Rustaveli Avenue formerly known as Golovin Street, is an avenue in central Tbilisi named after the medieval Georgian poet, Shota Rustaveli. The Avenue starts at Freedom Square and extends for about 1.5 km in length, before it turns into an extension of Kostavas Kucha (Kostava Street).

Rustaveli is often considered as the main thoroughfare of Tbilisi due to a large number of governmental, public, cultural, and business buildings that are located along or near the Avenue. The former Parliament of Georgia building, Kashveti Church, the Simon Janashia Museum of Georgia (part of the Georgian National Museum), the Tbilisi Opera and Ballet Theatre, the Rustaveli State Academic Theater, the Rustaveli Museum, and the Georgian Academy of Sciences, among others, are all located on Rustaveli.
