Co-operation between the Engineering Associations of Mediterranean Countries (EAMC)
under the auspices of World Federation of Engineering Organizations (WFEO)

STATEMENT OF INTENT

1 MOTIVATION

*Peoples living around the Mediterranean basin are now facing great political and economic challenges.
An important key for social and economic development of this region depends largely on close co-operation among the Mediterranean Area countries.
Engineers and their Professional Associations must play an important role in sharing and transferring knowledge and technologies in increasingly techno cultures and engineered societies.*

2 OBJECTIVES

*We, the undersigned Engineering Associations of the Mediterranean Countries (EAMC), wish and commit ourselves to establish general bases for continuous co-operation to develop the Mediterranean societies and to collaborate on initiatives, studies, activities and events aiming at the achievement of this goal.
EAMC consider this statement as the general framework on the basis of which the mutual understanding and co-operation ...*

Co-operation between the Engineering Associations of Mediterranean Countries (EAMC)

ANNEX STRATEGIC COOPERATION LINES

CNI, under the patronage of WFEO, intends to develop partnerships between Engineering Professional Associations of countries surrounding the Mediterranean.

Focus will be on the following programs:

Establishment of a network to facilitate the free movement of engineers in the Mediterranean area;

Exchange of information on national engineering education and professional systems; contributions to international surveys and reports in ... CO Global Engineering Assessment project;

... of interest to the Mediterranean Area in collaboration promotion of sustainable and renewable energies, energy friendly designs;

WHERE WE ARE NOW

The model could be welcomed in areas bigger than the Mediterranean basin

The initiative held in Lecce was clearly intended for the future and be instrumental in promoting the development of a common language for engineering matters.

It wanted to demonstrate that cooperation policies between countries in areas full of potential and opportunities, would be beneficial for engineering developments in a wide range of sectors like economics and finance as well as in the social and cultural fields.

Africa could be the first continent where we can replicate the model and grow it gradually from the borders of the Mediterranean through the Arab territories to the coasts of South Africa with the committed patronage of engineering organisations.

In Abuja, Nigeria, at the WECSI - World Engineering Conference on Sustainable Infrastructure - the signature of common Heads of Agreement between the Mediterranean Organisations of Engineers as a result of the general consensus on the EAMC initiative and its operative framework was presented and aroused wide interest in extending the initiative to the African continent

Making EAMC known at the WECSI 2014 and the wide acknowledgment of its strategic valences has laid the foundation for possible replicas stage-managed initially in the Arab countries and later in the whole Africa.

AFRICAN PARTNERS

Federation of African Engineering Organizations (FAEO) including its following organisations:

- 1. WAFEO (Western Africa Federation of the Engineering Organizations)
- 2. SAFEO (Southern Africa Federation of the Engineering Organizations)
